Newsletter - July 2006

General Information

Club's 60th Anniversary in 2006 - The Anniversary Dinner will take place on Thursday 12th October at Hunters Lodge, Crewe. The guest speaker is now confirmed as Mark Richards - the well known Lake District writer. Tickets are £25 per person for a 3 course meal with choice followed by coffee or tea. A booking form is attached for return to Pauline Vawdrey. Please indicate your menu choice on this form. If members know of any former members of the club who would like to attend, please inform Peter Dawson.

Bowls Evening 11th May 2006 - The Nag's Head, Haughton - Once again a very successful event, with thanks to Bernard Wakeley for the impeccable organisation! The event was won by Margaret Harvey and Peter Dawson. Those not bowling were treated to a short walk led by Joyce Dawson. 25 members attended the event.

Sunrise Walk - 17th/18th June 2006 Following supper at the Bickerton Poacher, 10 brave ramblers set off at 23.15 hours along the Sandstone Trail for an approximate 10 mile walk. From the ridges the lights of the surrounding towns lit up the skyline. We saw an owl, heard the dawn chorus and viewed a cloudy sunrise over Beeston at about 4-30am. We returned to the Scout Hut in Albion Street at 6-30am and enjoyed a very full English breakfast specially prepared and served by 3 rambling club 'cordon bleu' chefs. A really pleasant & delightful night walk was enjoyed by all. Thanks to Margaret Harvey and all her helpers for the organisation of the event.

AGM 2006 Minutes - To enable members to view these before the next AGM, the committee agreed to circulate a copy on the Sunday Coach walks and a copy will also be available on the Club web site.

Finally - Congratulations to Ken and Sylvia Elkins on their recent marriage
