Bags on the Coach - We have previously agreed that all large backpacks, boot bags and walking poles are to be placed in the luggage bay and not brought on to the coach.

Small bags etc. that will fit on the overhead luggage rack may be brought on the coach. This is for safety reasons and to comply with Burland’s regulations

To help with loading and unloading, place bags as follows; Nantwich – bags in the back of the luggage area.

Wells Green – bags in the front of the luggage area.

Crewe / Crewe ALDI – bags in the middle of luggage area. This applies on outward and return journeys.

To assist with loading and unloading we are proposing to ask for volunteers to carry this out and to ask members to stand clear while we do this. Members are requested to identify their bags with a coloured ribbon or similar ID as you would use for Baggage Reclaim purposes,
